ENTREPRENEURS

ROSCOE, IL – May, 2011 – Comply365 announced today that it is one of only 20 companies selected for the Chicagoland Entrepreneurial Center’s (CEC’s) CAP 20 portfolio of entrepreneurial ventures. CAP 20 clients represent some of the most innovative ventures within the area.

“The CAP 20 program connects entrepreneurs with the critical resources and mentor relationships they need to be successful,” said John Roberson, Executive Vice President of the CEC. CAP 20 clients are selected through a competitive process which evaluates applicants based on their business model, current products and services, revenue traction to date, and the management team’s expertise.

“We are honored to participate in this innovative and highly regarded program,” said Kerry Frank, CEO of Comply365. “We have already benefited greatly from ideas, contacts and suggestions.” The CAP20 program has helped us refine our business plan with real-world advice and experience from some of the area’s thought-leaders and seasoned professionals.” We have been able to accelerate the right initiatives to grow more quickly. We are thrilled to be exceeding revenue targets and anticipate we will continue to be a leading new venture that creates jobs in the greater Chicagoland area,” added Frank.
