TONYA MEISTER NAMED CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER OF COMPLY365

Meister brings extensive business strategy, marketing and management expertise

Roscoe, IL –January 10, 2012 - Comply365 is delighted to announce Tonya Meister has joined the Comply365 leadership team as Chief Operating Officer.

Ms. Meister has been serving in this role for the past 9 months. She is responsible for developing business strategy and operational plans to ensure the company achieves its business objectives. Meister is also leading partner development and marketing strategies. Her proven experience in starting and growing businesses is a tremendous asset for Comply365.

Meister brings over 20 plus years of experience in management and marketing. She's played a leading role in growing a premier group of print solution companies that resulted in a sale to Deluxe Corporation. She successfully led the company's transition to a public company and served as president. She also brings extensive marketing, product management experience in the software, digital and print media, and consumer packaged goods industries.

"Tonya has already helped Comply365 define key product and business development and operational strategies. We are on track to achieve our aggressive growth objectives for 2012," said Kerry Frank, CEO of Comply365. "Tonya is a key contributor to our leadership and continues to bring innovative strategies, operational processes, and leadership in all areas of the company," added Frank.

"We are growing rapidly and are thrilled to have Tonya play a leadership role in our growth and acceleration," explained Kerry Frank, CEO of Comply365. "Tonya has spent the last several years in key executive roles and knows what it takes to grow a successful business. Her passion for meeting market needs balanced with operational detail ensures we execute on our strategies and achieve our goals," added Frank.

Meister received her MBA from the Kellogg at Northwestern University and Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Wharton at the University of Pennsylvania.
